Excerpt: .I hope it may be the same with many of yon. When the lord comes to His Temple and fills it with His glory, you won t know what to do. You must find vent somewhere, or you will be as the poor old negro said he was-- Ready to bust his waistcoat. We feel so about temporal things. People drop down dead with joy. People shriek with grief. People s hearts stand still with wonder at the news they have heard, perhaps from some prodigal boy. I heard of a mother, not long ago, whom some one injudiciously told of the sudden return of her son, who dropped down dead, and never spoke. And when the Master comes to His Temple, that glorious blessed Holy Saviour, whom you profess so to long after and to love, and who has been absent so many years, and whom you have been seeking after with strong crying and tears, when He comes, do you think it will be too much to shout your song, or go on your face, or do any extravagant thing? Oh! no, if there is reality, you cannot help yourself. The manifestation will be according to your nature. One will fall down and weep in quietness, and the other will get up and shout and jump. You cannot help it. I haves read of two martyrs one of whom rejoiced in the realisation of God s presence, and the other was in...
